

Approve Resolution No. 7216 designating the 2.19-acre remainder parcel (to include the main residence, barn, buildings and landscape features of the Historic Hardison Ranch at 1226 Ojai Road) as a City Historic Landmark.

Santa Paula City Council

Santa Paula City Council August 21

Santa Paula City Council

Santa Paula City Council

August 21

Santa Paula City Council

Santa Paula City Council August 21

Santa Paula City Council

Santa Paula City Council

August 21

Santa Paula City Council

August 21

Santa Paula City Council August 21

The Hardison property is eligible for City Landmark Designation based on the criteria identified within the Historic Preservation Ordinance No. 816 Section 17.55.080. Nomination of Landmarks.

Application Review and Recommendations

February 28, 2019 - Design Assistance Committee (recommended the key criteria for nomination)

May 28, 2019 - Historic Preservation Commission (adopted Resolution No. 3798 recommending that the City Council identify the 2.19-acre remainder parcel property of the Historic Hardison Ranch at 1226 Ojai Road as a City Historic Landmark).

riteria for Designation of Landmark Nomination:

- Historical & Cultural Significance
- The proposed landmark is particularly representative distinct historical period, type, style, region, or way of

- Historic Architectural & Engineering Significance
- The construction materials or engineering methods
- ed in the proposed landmark are unusual or significant
- uniquely effective.

Neighborhood and Geographic Setting

) The proposed landmark materially benefits the historial proposed landmark material proposed landmark nvironmental analysis of the California Environmen uality Act (CEQA) statutes identify that the proposes esignation of the Hardison property as a City Landma esignation to be exempt from further analysis under talifornia Environmental Quality Act pursuant to Title f the California Code of Regulations, Sections 153 Class 8) and 15331 (Class 31).

Approve Resolution No. 7216 designating the 2.19-acre remainder parcel (to include the main residence, barn, buildings and landscape features of the Historic Hardison Ranch at 1226 Ojai Road) as a City Historic Landmark.

